

2021 Corporate Political Contributions

The below tables detail the applicable corporate contributions made by Diamondback Energy, Inc. (“Diamondback”) in 2021, if any. Corporate contributions are made in accordance with Diamondback’s Policy Governing Corporate Political Contributions, a copy of which can be found on Diamondback’s website at www.diamondbackenergy.com/investors/corporate-governance.

1. Corporate Contributions to Political Candidates, Political Parties and 527 Organizations:

None.

2. Corporate Contributions Made to Influence State or Local Ballot Measures:

None.

3. Corporate Contributions Made in Respect of Independent Expenditures (as defined by the Federal Election Commission):

None.

4.

a. The Non-Deductible Portion of any Corporate Contributions above $25,000 made to 501(c)(4) U.S. based Civic Organizations that Engage in Political Activities:

None.

b. Corporate Contributions above $25,000 made to 501(c)(6) U.S. based Trade Organizations (including the portion of dues used for activities that are not deductible):

| Trade Association Name | Dues Paid | % Used for Lobbying Activities |
|--|-----------|-----------------------------------|
| Texas Oil and Gas Association (TXOGA) | $165,060 | 8.01% |
| American Exploration & Production Council (AXPC) | $120,000 | 70% |
| American Petroleum Institute (API) | $248,672 | 70% |
| Permian Strategic Partnership (PSP) | $265,000 | 5.46% |
| Permian Basin Petroleum Association (PBPA) | $75,000 | 80% |

Any expenditures associated with activities that support lobbying and any contributions made by Diamondback’s political action committees are reported separately in accordance with state and federal law.